Private IFC Discussion

IFC members held a discussion relating to internal operating procedures.

Discussion with Dr. John Middleton, MU Assistant Vice Chancellor

Dr. John Middleton, MU Assistant Vice Chancellor, joined the IFC meeting to discuss his appointment as Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and Chief of Staff. The group discussed the System Office of Academic Affairs, how to maintain working relationships with leaders across all four universities, and how the IFC can work most productively with the Office. The group also discussed the interactions of the Office with members of the Board of Curators, how the Office will navigate closer integration between the System and MU campus, and how the IFC can best support this position.
