

C. Brice Ratchford Memorial Fellowship

Description

The C. Brice Ratchford Memorial Fellowship Award recognizes a University of Missouri System faculty member who demonstrates commitment, dedication and effectiveness in advancing the land-grant mission through extension, international education, and agricultural economics programs. The fellowship is presented to a faculty member who personifies the creativity, vision and leadership exhibited by the late Dr. C. Brice Ratchford, president emeritus of the University of Missouri System and dean of cooperative extension. The annual award is funded from a permanent endowment created with a gift from the late Dr. Ratchford. The award is presented to the designee and made by the Provost on the recommendations of the C. Brice Ratchford Memorial Fellowship Committee to the President.

Equity and Nondiscrimination

To the best of my knowledge after due diligence review, this nominee:

Has not been found responsible for violation of the University's equity and nondiscrimination rules (CRR Chapter 600) and is not currently involved as a respondent in proceedings under those rules. I am not otherwise aware of information to indicate that providing a President's Award to this individual would reasonably be viewed as undermining the University's commitment to excellence, diversity and inclusion.

Is currently a Respondent in a pending investigation for allegedly violating or has previously been found responsible for violating the University's equity and nondiscrimination rules (CRR Chapter 600). Given the current state, further review of the application is recommended to ascertain if providing the President's Award to this individual would reasonably be viewed as undermining the University's commitment to excellence, diversity and inclusion. Please explain the findings:
