

You're a Panelist, Now What?

You will be selected based on availability

May also be one of two alternates, which provides good experience

Read all materials that are provided

Investigative report and exhibits

Have questions in mind

Meet ahead of time with other panelists

Have an open mind

Day of Hearing

Make sure have undistracted availability the day of the hearing

Hearings are over Zoom

Be mindful of what is viewable (you may want to use a background)

Watch your facial expressions

Materials are confidential

Don't share details with anyone other than other panelists and OGC

Shred all materials when done

